

MARSHALL COUNTY FISCAL COURT PROCLAMATION

FRYSC Coordinators Appreciation Week

WHEREAS Family Resource and Youth Services Centers remove the non-academic barriers to student achievement, bridge the gaps to needed resources, and collaborate the resources of schools and communities for the success of students, families, and communities;

WHEREAS Family Resource and Youth Services Centers utilize strengthened community and school partnerships in their ability to provide vital programs, services, and referrals to students and their families. These partnerships are critical in efforts on behalf of students to promote:

- * early learning and successful transition to school;
- * academic achievement and well-being; and
- * graduation and transition into adult life

WHEREAS the Kentucky Family Resource and Youth Services Centers have proven to be the most successful part of the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990;

WHEREAS over 1,200 or approximately 99% of eligible schools now utilize school and community resources through the on campus Family Resource and Youth Services Centers; with these centers servicing 632,498 of Kentucky's children and their families.

WHEREAS Family Resource and Youth Services Centers develop a system of supports in their local communities and provide opportunities for children, families, and the community that allow all students to learn and the community to thrive;

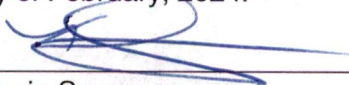

WHEREAS Family Resource and Youth Services Coordinator Appreciation Week, celebrated from February 5th through February 9, 2024, recognizes, raises awareness of, and celebrates the more than 887 Family Resource and Youth Services Centers and the coordinators across the Commonwealth and the critical role they address in the success of students, families, and schools: Now, therefore, be it

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kevin Spraggs, Judge/Executive of Marshall County, do hereby proclaim the week of February 5th through February 9, 2024 as:

“FAMILY RESOURCE AND YOUTH SERVICES COORDINATORS APPRECIATION WEEK”

in Marshall County, Kentucky to honor the Family Resource and Youth Services Coordinators tirelessly working to serve our students, families and communities with the motto “Whatever It Takes”.

Given under my hand on this the 2nd day of February, 2024.

Kevin Spraggs
Marshall County Judge/Executive
